Secretary,

MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT

New Delhi, the 2nd September 1959

S.O. 2008.—In pursuance of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), the Central Government hereby publishes the following award of the Arbitrator in the industrial dispute between the Bombay Dock Labour Board and their workmen.

ARBITRATION No. 1 OF 1959

In the matter of the disputes

BETWEEN

The Bombay Dock Labour Board

AND

their workmen.

PRESENT:

Shri F. Jeejeebhoy, Arbitrator.

APPEARANCES:

For the Dock Board—Shri H. M. Seervai instructed by Shri K. K. Mehta, Secretary, Bombay Dock Labour Board.

For the workmen—Shri N. V. Phadke, Advocate, instructed by Shri Manohar Kotwal and Shri S. R. Kulkarni, Secretaries, Transport and Dock Workers' Union, Bombay.

AWARD

By its Order of 16th March, 1959 the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour and Employment published an arbitration agreement between the Dock Labour Board and their workmen represented by the Transport and Dock Workers' Union to refer the dispute between them to my arbitration.

2. The disputes concern the registered workers, monthly or in pool, of the Dock Labour Board, who are engaged in loading and unloading at the Bombay Docks under a progressive piece-rate scheme which has been given by the Labour Appellate Tribunal. The workers concerned in this arbitration are the stevedore workers, some on monthly and others on daily rates, but all of whom have benefited largely from the progressive piece-rate scheme. In fact it is stated that the monthly rated workers pay income-tax today; and the total emoluments of the daily rated are roughly three quarters of the emoluments of the monthly rated. The difference in the emoluments is due to certain features inherent in the piece-rate scheme, and to a historical background.

3. The Reference is concerned with the improvement of the emoluments and leave terms of the monthly rated and daily rated stevedore workers. In this context I have been asked by the Dock Labour Board to take into consideration the following additional benefits and improvements in conditions of service which the Dock Labour Board has granted subsequent to the start of the progressive piece-rate scheme:—

- (a) Minimum guarantee has been stepped up from 12 days to 21 days.
- (b) Attendance allowance has been raised from Re. 1 to Rs. 1/8/ per day.
- (c) While there were no paid holidays for daily rated workers previously, the Board now gives 11 days paid holidays in the year.
- (d) The workmen are paid railway fare to and from their homes on generally the same principles as observed by the Central Government.
- (e) Provident fund and gratuity benefits have been improved.
- (f) Casual leave has been stepped up from seven days to ten days.

4. The first issue in dispute is:

"(1) Whether the registered workers, both monthly and in pool, as well as the staff should get 10 days sick leave with full pay and allowances in a year as against 7 days sick leave being granted to them at present."

5. The present position as regards leave available to registered stevedore workers and the staff in the employment of the Board is as follows:—

Privilege leave—1/11th of the days attended for work subject to accumulation of 90 days.

Sick leave—7 days in a year subject to accumulation up to 60 days.

Casual leave—10 days in a year.

The claim that the 7 days sick leave should be increased to 10 days is not based on any tangible argument. The Bombay Port Trust does not give sick leave but gives 20 days half average pay leave in a year of service with accumulation up to 120 days; but it is common ground that the seven days sick leave as at present given to Dock Labour Board employees is better than the 20 days half average pay leave as given by the Bombay Port Trust. It is said by the workmen that the Port Trust leave rules are superior to the leave rules of the Dock Labour Board, but apart from the question of the relevancy of such comparison, an examination of the position shows that such contention is not correct unless we take into account such remote benefits as quarantine leave and injury leave given by the Port Trust. The other Dock Labour Boards give 7 days sick leave. The workers are not fully employed and have plenty of rest in the month, even though it is enforced. On a consideration of the facts and circumstances I am unable to grant the claim under this issue.

6. The second issue is as follows:—

“(2) Whether the registered workers working in the pool should get weekly off with pay; and if so what should be the rate of payment for the same, and whether the payment in respect of the weekly off days should be exclusive of payment calculated under clause 31 of the Bombay Dock Workers' (Regulation of Employment) Scheme, 1956?”

Even if this claim were to be granted as asked for, it will in practice mean no more than one extra weekly-off payment in the month according to the present number of days of work available in the docks. Shri Phadke however puts his claim in this way; the registered worker working in the pool should be paid a day's additional wage if he has worked continuously for six days, and such additional wage shall be the average of the piece-rate earnings of the previous six days and it makes no difference to his case whether the worker is employed or not on the 8th day. The Board contends that the daily rated wage has been ascertained by dividing the monthly rate by 26 whereas it is asserted by labour that that is not correct, because they say that 103 divided by 26 comes to Rs. 3-15-3 and not to Rs. 3-14 as has been given. The Labour Appellate Tribunal however adopted Rs. 3-14 for reasons which appear in the award. It would thus appear that the weekly-off is already paid for. My attention has been called by Shri Phadke to the fact that the monthly rated in addition have been given four Sundays at the rate of 1/30th of their total emoluments. But that is part of the monthly wage. For the purposes of the piece-rate scheme the Labour Appellate Tribunal applied certain weightages in order to give effect to certain notions of equity as between the different categories, and the wages of the monthly rated was built up accordingly. In fact the monthly rated has been given by the Dock Workers' (Regulation of Employment) Scheme a position of advantage.

7. Upon a consideration of the arguments which were advanced before me I am unable to direct that a weekly-off with pay should be given to the registered workers working in the pool, and I am unable to accede to the claim as made by Shri Phadke, for a weekly-off is a day of rest, and it assumes a continuity of work after the day of rest.

8. The third issue is as follows:—

“(3) Whether the guaranteed minimum wages in accordance with clause 31 of the Bombay Dock Workers' (Regulation of Employment) Scheme, 1956 and holiday wages of the pool workers under clause 35 of the said Scheme should be calculated on the basis of their respective daily wage rates?”

Both the original Tribunal and the Labour Appellate Tribunal found that the existing wage rates were adequate, and they were concerned with building up a progressive piece-rate scheme based upon such existing rates; and the existing wage rate was retained as the basis for leave, provident fund, gratuity etc. It is true that the Labour Appellate Tribunal gave some additions like the processing allowance, but it must be appreciated that such additions had been given for the purpose of creating a suitable structure of a progressive piece-rate scheme and was to be applicable only when the piece-rate scheme was operating; time rate was also part of that piece-rate scheme, so also idle time allowance etc. Thus while the daily wage rate for a junior worker has been fixed at Rs. 4-3 the minimum guaranteed wage for him is Rs. 3-14, but the daily wage rate includes the processing allowance. Upon a consideration of all the factors I cannot see my way to increase the guaranteed minimum wage. But as to the holiday wages of the pool workers the position is a little different and having regard to the considerations which have been urged before me, I direct that it should be the same as the minimum guarantee rate as for instance Rs. 3-14 for a junior worker. Shri Seervai contended that such increase might result in a claim by the monthly rated for higher payment for holidays as was in fact claimed for leave. It is however clear that what is hereby given does not upset any balance; the wage charts produced before me show that the monthly rated who stand in an advantageous position earn substantially more than the daily rated.

9. Now, therefore, I make an award accordingly.
The 12th August, 1959.

AWARD

The Government of India, Ministry of Labour and Employment, by Order No. LR.II-2(47)59 dated 1st July, 1959, made in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Act XIV of 47), was pleased to refer to me for adjudication the industrial dispute between the parties above-named in respect of the following matters specified in the following schedule to the said Order:—

“Whether the management of Religara Colliery was justified in placing Shri S. K. Roy Choudhury, Clerk in the Store Section in Grade II after 5th February 1958, under the Award of the All India Industrial Tribunal (Colliery Disputes) as modified by the decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal, and if not, to what relief he is entitled?”

2. S.K. Roy Choudhury, the workman in respect of whom this dispute is raised joined service in 1940 as a Despatch Clerk and worked in that capacity till October 1943. In November 1943 he was appointed as the Store Keeper at Badroochak Colliery and continued in that post till April 1945. In May 1945, he was transferred as Store Keeper of the Bankola colliery, another colliery under the same management, i.e. Messrs. Bird and Co (Private) Limited, and he worked there as such till 12th October, 1957.

3. Thus when the Award of the All India Industrial Tribunal (Colliery Disputes) (hereinafter referred as to the Majumdar Award) came into force on 26th May, 1956, he was employed as a Store Keeper of the Bankola Colliery. Now Appendix XVI of that Award mentions the agreed grading and nomenclature of the clerical staff employed in all collieries. Under it the clerical staff are by designation classified into 3 grades and the designation ‘Store Keeper’ is stated under both Grade I and Grade II. I may here state that the Labour Appellate Tribunal by its decision dated 29th January, 1957, raised the scale of pay for Grade I and II clerical staff as follows:

Grade I—Rs. 63—4—83—5—118—8—156.

Grade II—Rs. 48—3—57—4—93.

and made the same payable from the date the Majumdar Award had come into operation i.e. 26th May, 1956, and these are the scales of pay in operation to-day. After the Majumdar Award was implemented S. K. Roy Choudhury was placed in Grade II. By his application dated 19th December 1956, S. K. Roy Choudhury claimed to be placed in Grade I [Exhibit W-A(1)], but his request was turned down.

4. But to continue, on 12th October, 1957, S. K. Roy Choudhury was transferred to the Religara colliery of the same management as Assistant Store Keeper. On his said transfer, the then Assistant Store Keeper in Religara colliery, Shri R. J. Charian, was transferred as Store Keeper on probation to the Bankola Colliery as Grade II clerk and on his confirmation in January 1958, he was placed in Grade I. The Store Keeper in Religara Colliery at that time was one Shri D. Atrap who had been placed in Grade I and in February 1958, he was transferred as Store Keeper to Loyabad Colliery, another colliery under the same management, when Shri Atri was transferred to Loyabad S. K. Roy Choudhury was appointed as Store Keeper of the Religara Colliery but was continued to be kept in the scale of pay prescribed for clerks in Grade II. S. K. Roy Choudhury claims that since February, 1958, when he took charge of the stores of the Religara Colliery as Store Keeper, he is entitled to the scale of pay prescribed for a Grade I clerk. The management has denied this claim, and hence this dispute.

5. The management in its rejoinder had raised a preliminary objection that this was an individual and not an industrial dispute but at the hearing Shri S. S. Mukherjea, the learned Advocate for the management did not press this objection.

6. The management's case, as stated in its Rejoinder dated 1st August, 1959, and as submitted by its learned Advocate Shri S. S. Mukherjea, at the hearing on 17th August, 1959, is that S. K. Roy Choudhury's work as Store Keeper in the Budroochuck and Bankola colliery was unsatisfactory and he was therefore in implementation of the Majumdar Award placed in Grade II, as he was not considered fit for Grade I. In support of its statement that his work was not satisfactory the management has relied upon certain adverse remarks contained in audit notes prepared by the audit department regarding the working of the Stores Department of the Budroochuck and Bankola collieries between 30th September, 1954, and 2nd/3rd July, 1957. There are in all 9 such remarks which have been extracted [Annexure 1(a) to the company's rejoinder]. The management has also relied upon the letter of the Chief Mining Engineer dated 15th/17th November, 1958, addressed to the Manager of the Religara Colliery, in which he declined to reconsider his decision to place S. K. Roy Choudhury in Grade I, because in his opinion, his work in the Bankola colliery as Store Keeper had not proved satisfactory. (Annexure I).

7. Shri S. S. Mukherjea, learned Advocate for the Management also argued that as Store Keepers were placed under Appendix XVI in both Grade I and Grade II, the management was justified in exercising its discretion in placing Shri S. K. Roy Choudhury in Grade II and he has submitted that no interference from the Tribunal is called for.

8. The first question referred for adjudication is whether the management's action in continuing to keep S. K. Roy Choudhury in Grade II, after 5th February 1958, when he was placed in charge of the Stores of the Religara Colliery, is justified. After an anxious consideration of the submissions made by the parties and the documentary evidence on record, I am of the opinion that the management's said action is not justified.

9. The Religara Colliery is a first class colliery and there can be no doubt that the Store Keeper of such a colliery has a responsible duty to perform. The former Store Keeper of that Colliery Shri D. Atrap was placed in Grade I and I do not see any justification why when S. K. Roy Choudhury performs the same duties and has the same responsibilities, he should be denied the Grade I scale of pay. It has not even been suggested that since February 1958, when he was appointed as Store Keeper and placed in charge of stores of the Religara Colliery, he has not been able to discharge his duties efficiently. If he was inefficient, it was for the management not to have appointed him as Store Keeper. It is not denied that when he was appointed as Store Keeper he undertook higher responsibilities and duties in connection with the stores of the Religara Colliery than what he was discharging as Assistant Store Keeper. As Assistant Store Keeper he was entitled to pay in Grade II and it seems to me unjustified that when he is promoted to a higher post and undertakes higher responsibilities as Store Keeper, he should be denied the higher Grade of pay i.e. the pay of Grade I, which his predecessor in that post was also drawing. Much is made of the fact that under Appendix XVI, Store Keepers are placed in both Grade I and Grade II, but I do not think it was ever meant that Store Keepers of a First Class Colliery like Religara were to be placed in Grade II for clerks. It must be remembered that in Appendix XVI the classification is by designation and not by qualification. S. K. Roy Choudhury had by February 1958 put in almost 18 years continuous service, and had experience of the work of Store Keeper in 2 other collieries of this management. No doubt, there are certain remarks against him contained in the audit reports, but the last of such remarks was made in July 1957. There has been no adverse remarks regarding his work in the Religara Colliery and the fact that the management itself after transferring him there as Assistant Stores Keeper, appointed him as Store Keeper, to take the place of their senior most Store Keeper on his transfer to the Loyabad Colliery, which is one of the biggest collieries of the management, suggests if anything that the management considered him fit to discharge these duties efficiently and he appears to have justified this as there has been no remark against him with regard to his work as Store Keeper of the Religara Colliery.

After having appointed him as Store Keeper of a colliery whose former store keeper was drawing Grade I pay, the management in my opinion is not justified in denying him the pay of a Grade I clerk. As against the remarks in the audit reports, Shri S. K. Roy Choudhury relies on 3 certificates which were granted to him [Exhibit W.A. (2), (3), and (4)]. One of the certificates is from the manager of the Budroochuck colliery (Exhibit W.A.R.) dated 13th April, 1957, in which he has spoken highly of Roy Choudhury's work as Store Keeper. In all these certificates the managers have spoken well of his work. Apart from the remarks in the audit reports, the only other remark against him is that of the manager of the Budroochuck colliery contained in his letter to the Chief Auditor dated 30th September, 1954, in which he had stated that Roy Choudhury and the Assistant Clerk Stores has been given a final warning in writing to clean out and arrange stores properly. Since then, however there had been no other warning or punishment inflicted on him and as I have stated after he was transferred to the Religara Colliery as Assistant Store Keeper he was promoted in February 1958 to the post of the Store Keeper of that colliery, vice the store keeper who was transferred to a higher colliery of the management. This shows that in February 1958, the management again thought him fit to be promoted to a post which was held by a Grade I clerk. Having entrusted him with that post the management in my opinion is not justified on the ground of his past inefficiency in depriving him of the pay of Grade I clerk, which the former Store Keeper of the colliery was drawing. It is significant that since February 1958, there has been no adverse remark or complaint about his work. In these circumstances, I hold that the management was not justified in continuing to place S. K. Roy Choudhury in Grade II after 5th February, 1958, and I answer that issue accordingly.

10 The next question to consider is what relief Roy Choudhury is entitled to. Since I have held that Roy Choudhury was entitled to be placed in Grade I for clerks, he is entitled to the pay scale of Grade I which is Rs. 63-4-83-5-118-8-156 and I therefore award that he shall be given the benefit of that scale of pay with effect from 5th February, 1958 and the amount that is thus found due to him, should be paid to him within one month of this Award becoming enforceable.

11. I award Rs. 50/-(fifty) as costs to the Union.
